Description

This course investigates different computer languages, offered under different subtitles. May be repeated for credit if content differs.

Outcomes

Prerequisite: Programming 2 with a C- or above

This course covers programming and problem-solving using Python. Topics include procedures and functions, iteration, recursion, sequence, dictionaries, arrays and vectors, strings, algorithms, object-oriented programming, and GUIs (graphical user interfaces).

1. Write moderately complex Python applications.
2. Use various control structures and to use functions.
3. Utilize the concepts of event-driven programming, and object-oriented programming.
4. Develop graphical user interfaces and sophisticated operational programs.
5. Identify parallelizable problems and utilize parallel Python

Criteria

Exam 1 - 3	60%	20% each
Exam 4 (Final Exam)	20%	The final exam is comprehensive
Assignment (12 programming assignment)	12%	All programs must be submitted and run correctly to pass the course All programs must execute according to specifications If an assignment is submitted late, 20% is deducted from the grade, with an additional 2% per day deduction, thereafter.

Practice problems	8%	Class attendance is required. Please notify the instructor as soon as possible regarding an excused absence. From time to time there will be practice problems assigned either as homework or in-class (1 or 2 questions). Practice problems are usually due in the next class. Occasionally there will be an in-class quiz of 1 or 2 questions on the topic of the day.

lowest % for an A is 93%, lowest % for an A- is 90%, lowest % for an B+ is 87%, lowest % for an B is 83%, lowest % for an B- is 80%, lowest % for an C+ is 77%, lowest % for an C is 73%, lowest % for an C- is 70%, lowest % for an D+ is 67%, lowest % for an D is 63%, any lower grade earns a Fail

There will be 4 tests.

The UNDERGRADUATE catalog provides these guidelines and grading options: A, A- superior work in the opinion of the instructor

B+, B, B- good work in the opinion of the instructor

C+, C, C- satisfactory work in the opinion of the instructor

D+, D passing, but less than satisfactory work in the opinion of the instructor I incomplete work in the opinion of the instructor

ZF An incomplete which was not completed within one year of the end of the course F unsatisfactory work in the opinion of the instructor; no credit is granted

W withdrawn from the course IP course in progress NR not reported for the course

Z a temporary designation given by the registrar indicating that the final grade has not been submitted by the instructor. When the final grade is filed in the Office of the Registrar, that grade will replace the Z.

Schedule

Weekly Schedule

Week 1	The Python programming language • Development environment • Compiling a simple Python Application • Data types • Input/Output: Print function Reading: Chapters 1, 2
--------	---

Week 2	Topics • The if/if-else statement • Loop Reading: Chapters 3, 4
Week 3	Topics • Defining and calling a function • File processing • Basics of parallel programming Reading: Chapters 5, 6
Weeks 4, 5, and 6	Topics • List, dictionary, and sets Reading: Chapters 7, 9 Exam 1: Friday of Week 4, topics from Chapter1 - 6
Week 7	Topics • Class and objects Reading: Chapters 10, 11
Week 8	Topics • Recursion • Image processing with PILLOW • Parallel image processing Reading: Chapter 12 Exam 2: Friday, topics from Chapters 10-12

Week 9	Topics • GUI Reading: Chapter 13
Week 10, 11	Topics • GUI continued Reading: Chapter 13
Week 12	Topics • Identifying parallel programming problems • Performance engineering basics Reading: Handout on contextualizing parallel, concurrent, and distributed programming Exam 3: Friday, topics from Chapter 13 and parallel programming
Week 13	Topics • Using threading ◦ Fibonacci series with multiple inputs Reading: Handout on parallel algorithms
Week 14	Topics • Python database ◦ opening and closing a database connection ◦ database fundamentals Reading: Chapter 14

Week 15	Topics • Python database ◦ creating a table ◦ adding data to a table ◦ select and update Reading: Chapter 14
Week 16	Final exam, Comprehensive

* Course Policies

- All work submitted in this course must be your own. Contributions from non-academic sources (such as AI tools) are prohibited. Contributions from approved sources must be fully acknowledged and properly quoted or paraphrased by you every time they are used. Failure to follow this policy constitutes a violation of academic integrity and may result in disciplinary action.
- Attendance and participation are required. Students who cannot attend every class are advised to withdraw from the course. Please notify the instructor as soon as possible regarding an excused absence. A student's final grade will be lowered for each unexcused absence.
- No cell phone usage during class time, including sending or receiving of phone calls, text messages, or instant messages. Phones should be turned off, not set to vibrate, etc. Phones should be not on the desktop.
Please do not leave the classroom during class time to get a snack, to get a drink, to use the restroom, etc., unless it is a true emergency.
- All participants, students or faculty are required to wear a mask in classroom.
- Students are responsible for making arrangements with other students for missed class notes and with the instructor for handouts and assignments.
Students should make arrangements with the instructor beforehand for not being able to attend any test or exam. Any unexcused absence will result in a failing grade for that quiz or exam.
- All program assignments must meet the specified style guidelines.
- All program assignments must compile and run (according to specifications) upon submission.
- All program assignments must be successfully completed to pass the course.
For all assignment, please follow all written as well as verbal instructions given in class.
Students are encouraged to discuss concepts and algorithms of the projects together but must code each program independently.
- Academic Dishonesty: Submitting an assignment that was copied, whole or in part, from another student (past or present) constitutes a violation of student conduct and will be handled according to the guideline of the Student Handbook.

- Facilitating Academic Dishonesty: Assisting any person commit an act of academic dishonesty also constitutes a violation of student conduct and will be handled according to the guideline of the Student Handbook.
- Assignments are due at due date and time indicated. Late assignments will get lower grades. If an assignment is submitted after a deadline, 20% will be deducted from the grade, with an additional 2% per day deduction thereafter.
- Quizzes, Tests and Exams are the property of the Math and Computer Science Department.
- This syllabus may be revised at the discretion of the instructor without the prior notification or consent of the student.

Institutional Policies

Academic Policies

Academic policies provide students with important rights and responsibilities. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with all academic policies that apply to them. Academic policies for undergraduate students can be found in the Undergraduate Studies Catalog; graduate students should review the Graduate Studies Catalog.

Undergraduate Studies Catalog

The Undergraduate Studies Catalog contains academic policies that apply to all undergraduate students. The academic policies and information section of the catalog contains important information related to attendance, conduct, academic honesty, grades, and more. If you are an undergraduate student, please review the catalog each academic year. The current Undergraduate Studies Catalog is at:

<http://www.webster.edu/catalog/current/undergraduate-catalog/>
(<http://www.webster.edu/catalog/current/undergraduate-catalog/>)

Graduate Studies Catalog

The Graduate Studies Catalog contains academic policies that apply to all graduate students. The academic policies section of the catalog contains important information related to conduct, academic honesty, grades, and more. If you are a graduate student, please review the catalog each academic year. The current Graduate Studies Catalog is at:

<http://www.webster.edu/catalog/current/graduate-catalog/>
(<http://www.webster.edu/catalog/current/graduate-catalog/>)

Grading

The Grades section of the academic catalog outlines the various grading systems courses may use, including the information about the final grade reported for this class.

Undergraduate

(<http://www.webster.edu/catalog/current/undergraduate-catalog/academic-policies.html#grading>)

Graduate

<https://webster.edu/catalog/current/graduate-catalog/academic-policies.html#gradingsystem>
(<https://webster.edu/catalog/current/graduate-catalog/academic-policies.html#gradingsystem>)

Incomplete

There are important policies that govern grades of Incomplete (I), including the circumstances under which Incomplete grades are granted, deadlines for completion, and consequences should the remaining course work not be completed. It is the responsibility of a student who requests an Incomplete to ensure that they understand and follow the policies.

Grade Appeals

Instructors are responsible for assigning grades, and student should discuss grade issues with the instructor. Policies and procedures for appealing grades are available in the appropriate catalog.

Academic Honesty Policy

Webster University is committed to academic excellence. As part of our Statement of Ethics, we strive to preserve academic honor and integrity by repudiating all forms of academic and intellectual dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism and all other forms of academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty is unacceptable and is subject to a disciplinary response. Students are encouraged to talk to instructors about any questions they may have regarding how to properly credit others' work, including paraphrasing, quoting, and citation formatting. The university reserves the right to utilize electronic databases, such as Turnitin.com, to assist faculty and students with their academic work.

The university's Academic Honesty Policy is published in academic catalogs:

Statement of Ethics

Webster University strives to be a center of academic excellence. The university makes every effort to ensure the following:

- The opportunity for students to learn and inquire freely
- The protection of intellectual freedom and the rights of professors to teach
- The advancement of knowledge through scholarly pursuits and relevant dialogue

Contact Hours for this Course

It is essential that all classes meet for the full instructional time as scheduled. A class cannot be shortened in length. If a class session is cancelled for any reason, the content must be covered at another time.

Important Academic Resources

Academic Accommodations and Support

At Webster University, we understand that all students learn differently and may have specific, often differing, learning needs. Some examples are doing rather than watching, being active instead of sitting still and taking frequent breaks. For others, the professor needs to speak louder, give more clear instructions, and be understanding with health issues. Regardless of what makes learning easier for you, our goal is to provide the most accessible learning environment possible for each student. If there are any specific needs you'd like to make your instructors personally aware of, including any academic accommodations, please reach out to them directly.

Webster University supports students in several ways. Students with academic/learning, health, physical, and psychological disabilities and students who have accessibility concerns can reach out to Webster's Academic ADA Coordinator at disability@webster.edu. You can also reach out if you have any questions relating to accessibility.

Online resources through WorldClassRoom (Canvas) have a variety of accessibility tools, provided through a program called Ally, for both students and faculty. Ally is free and already incorporated into WorldClassRoom. It helps students who have visibility and attention challenges; who need easier access to course materials from mobile phones, tablets, electronic readers, etc.; or who need or prefer file types different from the format uploaded by the instructor. You can find more information about Ally at <https://webster.edu/online/ally.php> (<https://webster.edu/online/ally.php>).

Life circumstances can make focusing on education, or anything else, difficult. For this reason, several additional resources and services are available to students at no cost:

1. Reeg Academic Resource Center (<https://websteru.sharepoint.com/sites/ReegARC> (<https://websteru.sharepoint.com/sites/ReegARC>))
 - Academic Counseling: academiccounseling@webster.edu
 - Assistive Technology: atacr@webster.edu
 - Disability Accommodations: disability@webster.edu
 - Testing Center: arc@webster.edu
 - Tutoring: tutoring@webster.edu
 - Writing services: writing@webster.edu
2. Counseling and Life Development (<https://www.webster.edu/student-counseling.php> (<https://www.webster.edu/student-counseling.php>)): 314-968-7030 or counselingld@webster.edu (these contact methods are non-confidential, but appointments are confidential)

Lastly, circumstances change. If, at any point throughout your education, you find that something is making learning difficult for you, please reach out to your instructor directly and/or to Webster's ADA team. It is never too late to ask for accommodations. We entirely support you and want you to have the best and most accessible education possible.

Student Success Portal

Webster University's Student Success Portal, powered by Starfish, is a communications tool to connect students with faculty members and campus support services. It allows faculty and staff members to communicate with you regarding academic achievements as well as areas where support may be helpful. You may use the portal to contact faculty and staff members for assistance and to arrange meetings. Activity in the portal will be communicated to your Webster University email account. The Student Success Portal is available via your course home page in WorldClassRoom or via Connections. Learn more about the Student Success Portal at <https://www.webster.edu/success/index.php> (<https://www.webster.edu/success/index.php>).

University Library

Webster University Library is dedicated to supporting the research needs and intellectual pursuits of students throughout the university's worldwide network. Resources include print and electronic books, journal articles, online databases, DVDs and streaming video, CDs and streaming music, datasets, and other specialized information. Services include providing materials at no cost and research help for basic questions to in-depth exploration of resources. The gateway to all of these resources and services is <http://library.webster.edu> (<http://library.webster.edu/>). For support navigating the library's resources, see <http://libanswers.webster.edu/> (<http://libanswers.webster.edu/>) for the many ways to contact library staff.

Drops and Withdrawals

Drop and withdrawal policies dictate processes for students who wish to unenroll from a course. Students must take proactive steps to unenroll; informing the instructor is not sufficient, nor is failing to attend. In the early days of the term or semester, students may DROP a course with no notation on their student record. After the DROP deadline, students may WITHDRAW from a course; in the case of a WITHDRAW, a grade of W appears on the student record. After the WITHDRAW deadline, students may not unenroll from a course. Policies and a calendar of deadlines for DROP and WITHDRAW are at:

Student Handbook and Other Important Policies

Student handbook and other non-academic policies may apply to you and may impact your experience in this class. Such policies include the student code of conduct, privacy, technology and communications, and more. Please review the handbook each year and be aware of policies that apply to you. The handbook is available at:

<http://www.webster.edu/student-handbook/> (<http://www.webster.edu/student-handbook/>)

Sexual Assault, Harassment, and Other Sexual Offenses

Webster University makes every effort to educate the community to prevent sexual assault, harassment, and other sexual offenses from occurring, and is committed to providing support to those affected when this behavior does occur. To access information and resources or to review the Policy on Sexual Assault, Harassment, and Other Sexual Offenses, visit:

<https://webster.edu/titleix/policy.php> (<https://webster.edu/titleix/policy.php>)

Research on Human Subjects

The Webster University Institutional Review Committee (IRB) is responsible for the review of all research on human subjects. The IRB process applies to all Webster University faculty, staff, and students and must be completed prior to any contact with human subjects. For more information on the IRB, visit:

<https://websteru.sharepoint.com/sites/InstitutionalReviewBoard>

Student Experience Feedback

At the end of this course, you will have the opportunity to provide feedback about your experience. Your input is extremely valuable to the university, your instructor, and the department that offers this course. Please provide your honest and thoughtful feedback, as it helps the university to provide the best experience possible for all of its students.

Important Technology Information

Connections Accounts

Webster University provides all students, faculty, and staff with a University email account through Connections. Students are expected to activate their Connections account and regularly check incoming university emails. Students may choose to have their University email forwarded to an alternate email address. Connections account holders can call the Help Desk (314-246-5995 or toll-free at 1-866-435-7270) for assistance with this setup. Instructions are also provided on the Information Technology website at:

<https://www.webster.edu/technology/index.php> (<https://www.webster.edu/technology/index.php>)

WorldClassRoom

WorldClassRoom is Webster's Learning Content Management System (LMS). Your instructor may use WorldClassRoom to deliver important information, hold class activities, communicate grades and feedback, and more. WorldClassRoom is available using your Connections ID at:

<https://worldclassroom.webster.edu/> (<https://worldclassroom.webster.edu/>)

Webster Alerts

Webster Alerts is the university's preferred emergency mass notification service, available free to current students, faculty, and staff at all US campuses. By registering a valid cell phone number and email address, you will receive urgent campus text, voice mail, and email communications. Valuable information concerning a range of incidents affecting you - from weather-related campus closures, class delays and cancellations, to more serious or life-threatening events - are immediately and simultaneously delivered through multiple communication channels. To register for Webster Alerts, visit (sign with your university-provided email and password:
